

Carlisle CHARACTER COUNTS!

Carlisle Elementary and Hartford Middle School are official members of the nationwide organization, Character Counts. This organization encourages students and adults to practice these six pillar character traits: respect, trustworthiness, fairness, responsibility, citizenship, and caring. At Carlisle, we focus on these traits everywhere:

Respect	Treat others the way you want to be treated Use good manners Be considerate Take care of property
Trustworthiness	Be honest Do what you say you will do Build a good reputation Have the courage to do the right thing
Fairness	Take turns and share Give everyone a chance Play by the rules Be open minded; listen to others Don't blame others
Responsibility	Do what you are supposed to do and be accountable Always do your best Think before you act- consider the consequences
Citizenship	Obey the rules and laws Do your share to make your school/community better Protect the environment Be a good neighbor Show pride in America
Caring	Help others Be kind Show you care Be thankful/express gratitude Forgive others
